USE VARIANCE TESTS

No such Use Variance shall be granted by a Zoning Board of Appeals without a showing by the applicant that applicable zoning regulations and restrictions have caused unnecessary hardship. Accordingly, the Applicant for a Use variance must satisfactorily demonstrate the following:
(add additional pages as needed):

1. The applicant cannot realize a reasonable return, provided that lack of return is substantial as demonstrated by competent financial evidence. No reasonable return is possible under current zoning because:

2. That the alleged hardship relating to the property in question is unique, and does not apply to a substantial portion of the district or neighborhood. The plight of the owner is due to the unique circumstance because:

3. That the requested use variance, if granted, will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood. The applicant must demonstrate that the modifications or use to be authorized will not alter the essential character of the locality because:

4. That the alleged hardship has not been self-created. The applicant shall state why the hardship is not self-created:
